Death of Earl Granville in London.

MASSACRE REPORT CONFIRMED

It is also believed that in addition to the four hundred and seventy slain two hundred more soldiers have met the same fate—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, April 1.—Earl Granville is dead. Earl Granville, whose family name was Leveson-Gower, has been a tower of strength to the Liberal cause in Great Britain. He was born seventy six years ago, and succeeded to his title and estates fifty years ago, when he was 26 years old. He early linked his fortunes with those of the Liberal party, and when Gladstone first came to power in 1868, Earl Granville, then 53 years old, became colonial secretary and later secretary of state for foreign affairs.

EARL GRANVILLE.

He went out of office with his party and came in with it again in 1880, when he again took the foreign portfolio and kept it for the five years' lifetime of that government. In Gladstone's last government, which came in 1886, Earl Granville's name does not appear, the Earl of Rosebery (Rothschild's son-in-law), taking Granville's old place in the foreign office. Earl Granville leaves a son and heir of his titles and estates, a son of his old age, Lord Leveson-Gower, who will not be 20 till next year.

Massacre Report Confirmed.

CALCUTTA, April 1.—Official dispatches received here by the government officers confirm the report of the massacre of Ghoorkas at Manipur in the province of Assam.

Fifteen Ghoorkas who escaped from the massacre have arrived at Kohima. They report that Mr. and Mrs. Grimwood, Golskens and Simpson have escaped into Cachar, where the natives were becoming restless. The party included twelve Europeans. It is supposed that Commissioner Quinton was seized at Grimwood's house, four miles distant from the cantonment of the main Ghoorka guard at Langthabat. The attack on the British native troops was made in overwhelming force by 10,000 irregular Kuki levies in the service of the Manipur government.

In addition to the disaster at Manipur, it is believed that a force of British troops, composed of a detachment of 200 soldiers of the Bengal infantry and about eighty Ghoorkas, who were marching from Shillong to Manipur in order to reinforce the Forty-second and Forty-fourth Ghoorkas light infantry which composed the escort of Chief Commissioner Quinton, have also been attacked and have shared the fate of their comrades at Manipur.

International Miners' Conference.

PARIS, April 1.—The international miners' conference convened in this city yesterday. There were present ninety-nine delegates, representing 107,167 miners. England is represented by forty-one delegates, Germany by nineteen, Belgium by fifteen, and France by twenty-three. One delegate from Bohemia represents a constituency of 100,000 workmen. Delegate Philip, of the Labor Exchange of LePuy, welcomed the international representatives of the mining industry to France and Paris.

Flour Advances in London.

LONDON, April 1.—The Leeds Millers' association has advanced the price of flour 1s 6d, making a total advance of 5s 6d during the month of March. This advance in the price of flour is due to the rise in the price of English and foreign wheats.

Reward for Balthoff's Murderer.

LONDON, April 1.—The Bulgarian government has offered a reward of £1,000 for the capture of the murderer of M. Balthoff, the minister of finance. The government has also pensioned the widow of M. Balthoff.

STEAMER WRECKED.

The City of Detroit Sinks in Twenty Feet of Water.

DETROIT, April 1.—The steamer City of Detroit, of the Detroit and Cleveland line of steamers, went on a rock at the lime kilns' crossing in the Detroit river at 12:15 o'clock yesterday morning during a fearful storm. The shock stove a hole in her bottom and she gradually sank to the bottom in twenty feet of water.

The steamer had seventy passengers and 125 tons of freight on board. There was no commotion among the passengers, as few were aware anything had happened until all danger was passed.

The passengers were taken off by the steamer Riverside and returned to this city. The vessel lies on the bottom in twenty feet of water, and wreckers have been sent from Detroit to raise her.

Colored Boys Steal an Engine.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., April 1.—A number of colored boys, none over 12 years of age, took possession of a Pennsylvania Central engine yesterday morning while it was standing in the yards, and ran it off the tracks, across Court avenue, starting the whole neighborhood. One of the boys, giving the name of Ed. Gilbert, was captured.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

FERN LEAF.

The C. C. Club meets this evening at the hospitable home of Miss Minnie Boyd. Our store is flourishing under the management of Messrs. Burgoyne & Evans. Miss Mollie McAtee left the early part of the week to visit Miss Anna Kneidler, of Augusta. Mrs. Lizzie Longmoor and her charming daughter, Miss Florence, are guests of Mr. Madison Worthington.

MARYSLICK.

Mr. James M. Mitchell is reported not so well. Mrs. Laura Duke is still poorly, and there is but little hope of her recovery. The martins have come to stay and the winter weather will have to move away. Martin Fay's little daughter, who got bit by a rat some time ago, is still very poorly from blood poison. Last Sunday was a very nice day, and Monday was bad enough to make up for it—raining all day.

Mrs. Thomas Ward died at the home of her son-in-law, Wm. Ray, last Saturday night. Her remains were placed in our cemetery on Monday. Her husband is still in the Asylum at Lexington. Prof. Milton Johnson left on Tuesday last for Southern Georgia. He will visit many of the principal cities and return by way of Charleston. He is traveling for his health. Mr. Willie Thompson takes charge of his school during his absence.

MINER'S MAXIMS!

"Kindle a candle at baith ends, it will soon be done."

The truth of this old Scotch maxim is best known to those who have personally tried the experiment.

High prices paid for poor shoes lead to the same result.

Shoes can never be judged by their looks, any more than human beings, as a beautiful outward appearance often conceals an unsubstantial and decaying foundation.

Therefore, it becomes necessary to have some one, on whose judgment and word you can rely.

MINER bears the enviable reputation of being a dealer who correctly estimates the value of his shoes.

The shoes sold at MINER'S, not only fit the foot, but the eye and purse as well.

Those who persist in purchasing unreliable goods, just because they are cheap, are seeking their own destruction financially.

Good Shoes can rarely be bought for less than they are worth; but they may be purchased at reasonable prices.

When you are in need of Good Shoes at a reasonable price, don't forget MINER, who has been
